The Thinker, 1880
Auguste Rodin

Donald J. Hall Sculpture
Park, outside south doors

I guess The Thinker is like me today—lots of problems and no answers.

Atalanta and Meleager
with the Calydonian
Boar, ca. 1564–1565
Francesco Mosca

Sculpture Hall

The marble is... silky and glowing, as though it's heated from inside.

Ceiling Vault, Chinese Temple, 1444

Chinese Temple, Gallery 230

I gaze at the very same dragon pearl I tried to catch with Gone Mom.

The Bodhisattva Guanyin of the Southern Sea Liao (907–1125) or Jin Dynasty (1115–1234)

Chinese Temple, Gallery 230

I reach up and touch fingertips with the bodhisattva.

Escutcheon and Ring Handle, Han Dynasty (206 B.C.E.–220 C.E.)

Gallery 231

What kind of a person, mother, would save these crazy things for her daughter?

Page 74

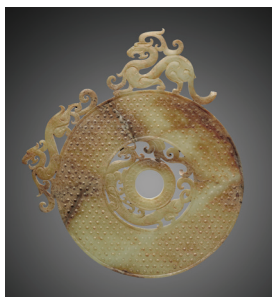

Qin (Zither), 1800 Kimura Kōshō

Gallery 202

His strumming calms everyone's voices.

Ritual Disc with Dragon Motifs (Bi), Eastern Zhou Dynasty (771–256 B.C.E.)

Gallery 231

I slide my little piece into one dragon's broken tail... A perfect match.

Page 218

Fantastic Rock, Qing Dynasty (1644–1911)

Gallery 202

... it looks like Mother Nature used an egg-beater to make it.

Page 135

Miniature pair of slippers, Sui Dynasty (581–618 C.E.)

Gallery 229

In a moment a matching slipper appears on his palm.
